

United Way: All day. Every day.

CAMPAIGN 2011

Your donations are at work around the clock, providing local programs that improve lives and build our community.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 6 am A teenager heads out to start her first job, a job found at a youth employment centre. 7 am First aiders pack up their truck before heading out to a soccer tournament. 8 am Volunteers serve students a healthy breakfast at local schools. 9 am A gardener wheels up to tend her flower bed at the Guelph Enabling Garden. 10 am Seniors smile and joke as they warm-up for their fitness group. 11 am A recent widower meets with a volunteer bereavement counsellor. 12 pm Volunteers deliver lunch with a friendly smile for a housebound senior. 1 pm A rural patient waves to the driver picking her up for her doctor's appointment. 2 pm A volunteer stops to visit a housebound senior in Mount Forest. 3 pm A tutor pulls out a book to share with a young student struggling with literacy. 4 pm Children arrive at a neighbourhood after school program. 5 pm A dad starts making a family meal with food from a local food bank. 6 pm A worried couple consider their debt options with credit management counsellor. | 7 pm Breast cancer survivors practice their dragon boat paddling at Puslinch Lake. 8 pm A Big Brother high-fives his Little Brother good-bye after playing ball in the park. 9 pm A mother learning to read shares a story with her children. 10 pm An elderly man with hearing loss understands the pharmacist's instructions because of the counselling he has received. 11 pm After finishing his homework, a teenager turns off his lights and goes to bed at a local home for homeless youth. 12 am A husband and wife curl up under donated blankets from a local clothing cupboard. 1 am A woman makes a call to get her and her children out of an abusive situation. 2 am A young mother comforts her baby with skills learned at program for teenage parents. 3 am A trained crisis volunteer answers a telephone call from a young man considering suicide. 4 am Using her donated walker, an elderly woman makes a safe and independent trip to the kitchen for a drink of water. 5 am The doors open and preparations for breakfast begin at a local drop-in centre. |
|--|---|

Thanks to our sponsor:

United Way Guelph & Wellington

 Give today.
unitedwayguelph.com/donate

